SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT

Comes Now, Plaintiff, Sabrina Holder filing this "Second Amended Compliant" against Defendant AT&T Services, Inc., alleges:

In the original "Amended Complaint" filed on May 14, 2020, printed in error, there missing were two (2) "Violations" regarding Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Those viiolations are:

- 1. Blacklisting
- 2. Fraud Upon The Court by Waverly Crenshaw Jr. (who was the lawyer in the previous case for AT&T)

I asked the Honorable Judge Eli Richardson to include these violations to the "Amended Complaint" as they are a large portion of the complaint and therefore solidify the concerns and relief that this "Retaliation" case is founded upon.

As of this date, there has not been any ruling by the judge that would effect this change.
